

APOSTLE OF MIRTH WILL CLOSE CHA- TAUQUA TONIGHT

Herbert Leon Cope Will Deliver His Famous Lecture on "Family Remedies"—Welsh Glee Singers Here.

Saturday and Sunday were big days at the chautauqua. The Vivian players presentation of the comedy "Nothing But the Truth," brought forth bursts of laughter and the people of Maysville are still laughing over the real comedy of these artists. Sunday's program was the highest class program of the entire week. Miss Isabelle Christian, prima donna of the Chicago Grand Opera Company's recital on Sunday evening was very pleasing to the lovers of high class music while her supporting artists were said to be masters of their instruments.

Dr. Wells' lecture on "Do the Dead Speak" on Sunday afternoon was a fair discussion of spiritualism and pleased many. The Sunday crowds were enormous and in the future there will be no Sunday programs but seven full week days will be given instead.

The chautauqua will come to a close this evening with a concert by the Welsh Glee Singers and Herbert Leon Cope's famous lecture on "Family Remedies." It is quite fitting that the chautauqua should close with this number for it will appeal to everyone and those who fall to hear Cope will miss the one big feature of the whole week. It was Cope who was labeled "Kill the Blues Cope" by the soldiers in Europe. He is a humorist of the Bill Nye type and will produce a laugh a second for two hours.

Whether or not Maysville will have a chautauqua in 1921 will probably be determined tonight. Opportunity to sign pledges has been given the people since Saturday and as yet there have not been enough pledges made to justify the guarantors to arrange for another program, for next year but it is thought that by tonight the guarantee will be made up. The people have shown a fine chautauqua spirit throughout the week and they have indicated that they want the chautauqua again next year.

LOCAL COLORED TEAM VICTORIOUS SUNDAY.

The Maysville colored baseball team defeated a colored team from Portsmouth, Ohio, at League Park Sunday afternoon by a score of 13 to 12. It was a very exciting game and many were in attendance.

PROF. W. H. HUMPHREY HONORED BY GOVERNOR

Principal of Colored High School Is Named Delegate to Inter-race Conference at Louisville.

Governor Edwin P. Morrow has selected Prof. W. H. Humphrey as delegate from this district to the Inter-race Conference which convenes in the city of Louisville July 23 and 24. This meeting will be composed of some of the leading representative men of both races of this state and the object of the conference is to consider inter-race problems.

This inter-race conference is considered to be so important that some of the civic and business bodies of the state are financing the meeting and are bearing the expenses of the delegates. Governor Morrow will preside at all the meetings.

LECTURER SPEAKS TO CLASS.

The Brotherhood class of the Third Street M. E. church shared their privilege of hearing Dr. George R. Wells yesterday with all the adult department. Dr. Wells gave a most interesting and helpful address on "Personality." A deep thinker, a pleasing personality and the ability to talk about problems in an entertaining way, characterizes the speaker. The Brotherhood class showed its appreciation of his coming by having forty—more than a third of the total number in the school—present.

ASHLAND EVANGELIST TO SPEAK AT RUGGLES.

Rev. W. H. Davenport, district superintendent, will be in the city Friday. He announces the engagement of Rev. H. H. Miller, D. D., an evangelist located at Ashland, also Rev. T. Howard Jones, pastor of First M. E. Church, Ashland, for part of the preaching at Ruggles Campmeeting. The program for the meetings is gradually assuming shape. Those who are to attend are assured of the very best in the way of preaching, singing, and a general good campmeeting.

CENTENARY LECTURE.

The Epworth League of the Third Street M. E. church will combine with the church next Sunday evening, presenting a Centenary missionary lecture illustrated with stereoscopic pictures. This will be one of several such services to be given during the summer season.

The Board of Directors of the City Mission will meet Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Mission rooms.

G. O. P. SUCCESS IN THIS STATE NOW ASSURED

Spirit of Confidence in Party Prevails Throughout State—Farmers, Workers and Business Men For Party.

The Louisville Herald's political editor back from a trip over Kentucky says:

A survey of the political situation in the Bluegrass, Eastern Kentucky, the counties of the Big Sandy, and in those counties bordering on the Ohio River from Boyd to Campbell and Kenton, reveals that everywhere a spirit of confidence in Republican success in the fall campaign prevails.

This confidence is based on conviction that Kentucky came to the parting of the ways politically last fall when a majority of 40,000 was rolled up for Morrow, but this year, the leaders in every section visited by The Herald correspondent declare victory is in the air, not so much because of the emphatic preponderance of Republican votes in the last campaign, but because of several contributing factors making for Republican success this year.

In the Bluegrass section, long the stronghold of the Democrats, there is much discontent among the farmers. At every meeting of the farmers in that section, as well as all over Kentucky for that matter, organizers have stressed what they call discrimination against the farmers. The organizers have accentuated the fact that while all commodities consumed by the farmer have been steadily mounting in price since the signing of the armistice, the farmer has been receiving a steadily diminishing return for his products. This break in the price of cattle and hogs last winter brought actual loss to stock raisers in Kentucky, and no one seems to be able to point out any material reduction in the price of these commodities when purchased by Old Ultimate Consumer.

"Ernest will swell this Republican vote in all this section of Kentucky," said a Kenton county Republican leader to the Herald correspondent. "His candidacy has a particularly strong appeal to the business interests throughout the state."

Something of this enthusiasm was reflected by leaders with whom the Herald correspondent talked in many different sections in the territory included in this survey.

The feeling throughout the state is that the state administration has redeemed every promise made to the voters last fall. Republican leaders are very enthusiastic when discussing this phase of the situation, and many of them declare it is bound to have the effect of retaining the support of thousands of voters who supported the party last fall for the first time in recent years.

Perhaps no one act of Governor Morrow's has created more general satisfaction throughout the state, among all classes of citizens, than his appointment of a strictly non-partisan good roads commission, and his firm stand against permitting the injection of politics into the administration of the state highway department.

CELEBRATE SIXTIETH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY.

Colonel W. B. Dawson and good wife quietly celebrated the sixtieth anniversary of their marriage at their home on the East Side Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Dawson were married in Aberdeen at the famous old Gretna Green by "Squire Shelton. The many friends of "Uncle Willie" and his wife extend the heartiest of congratulations and wish them many more happy anniversaries.

SMALL BOY MISTREATED.

Three youngsters were before Police Judge Whitaker this afternoon on a most serious charge of mistreating a smaller boy on Sunday. As the boys were too young for the city court, they were transferred to Juvenile Court without an examination and Judge Purnell will take up the case.

STILL LOOKING FOR SCHOOL TEACHERS.

Mason county schools are still short of teachers. Trustee Langhorn Fox of Dover, was in Maysville today endeavoring to get in touch with a teacher for the Dover schools as an assistant to Miss Hart, who has been elected principal of the school.

Mr. James Payne, aged 76 and Mrs. Nancy Newdigate, aged 65, were married at the County Clerk's office this morning by County Judge H. P. Purnell. Both parties are residents of Ewing, Fleming county. It is the first venture for the groom while the bride is taking her second venture.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Roberts and son, of Hiramman, Tenn., are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Gilmore, of Lexington.

Mr. Geo. Wilson, of Forest avenue, suffered a slight stroke of paralysis Saturday.

STANDARD DRUG STORE AGAIN CHANGES HANDS

Lexington Firm Purchases Maysville Drug Store and Will Take Charge Early in August.

A deal which has been pending for the past week was consummated late Saturday afternoon and the People's Drug Company, of Lexington, operators of a high class drug store in that city, purchased of Mr. R. B. Crech the Standard Drug Store at the corner of West Second and Court streets.

Mr. Crech has extensive coal interests in the mountains of Kentucky and is leaving the drug business that he might devote his time entirely to his coal mining holdings. The newcomers will take charge of the local store during the early part of August and will operate it as a high class store in every respect.

A local manager will be sent here by the corporation from Bowling Green, Ky., to manage the store here and through the connection with the company's large store in Lexington they will be enabled to give their local patrons fresh drugs and will be enabled to handle a most complete line at all times.

BARACA'S NEW OFFICERS.

The Barnea class of the First Baptist church, one of the leading men's Bible classes in the city of Maysville, has just closed a most successful term and entered upon a new term with a determination to break past records in real accomplishments. Mr. Ed. W. Hutchison is the new president of the class. Mr. W. H. Smith is vice president; Elmer E. Kirk, Secretary; W. A. Munzing, Treasurer; Prof. R. Y. Maxey, teacher, and C. S. Kirk, assistant teacher. During the six months term just closed the Barnea class contributed over $200 to various causes, much of which was to charity.

CONVENTION DATE ANNOUNCED.

At last the date and place for holding Sunday school convention can be definitely announced. The date is July 21st, and the place the Hilldale school house. This progressive school under the leadership of their progressive superintendent, Miss Ella Wallace, will entertain the convention. Its success is therefore assured. The program will be announced in a few days. Let every school in city and county send representatives. It will be an excellent place to consider the problems of the Sunday school work.

AGED FLEMING CITIZEN DIED ON SUNDAY.

Mr. W. T. Powell, who for many years conducted the hotel at Ewing and who is well known in Maysville, died at his home at Ewing Sunday. Mr. Powell was about 70 years of age and a splendid gentleman. He was an uncle of Mr. William Powell, of Forest avenue this city. Funeral will be held from the late home Tuesday morning and burial will be made at the Mayslick cemetery.

CHAUTAUQUA CREW GIVEN PICNIC.

The members of the chautauqua crew and the Junior leader and Superintendent were guests of Mrs. Ned Piper and Misses Amy Daugh and Cella Brown at a picnic given in the county this morning.

Mr. William Martin and family are today moving from the Davis flats in Commerce street to the Purdon flats in West Second street.

WILL MOVE

About July 1st we will move to 231 Market street, ground floor. 28-11 J. A. SIMPSON, Optician.

Frank Evans was arrested this afternoon and placed in jail. He is charged with being intoxicated and with threatening to shoot a neighbor.

FORMER LOCAL MAN KILLED WHEN ENGINE GOES THRU BRIDGE

Engineer Frank Meyers, Former Hostler at Local C. & O. Yards, Killed When His Engine Goes Through Trestle at Cincinnati.

Frank Meyers, 44 years old, 328 East Seventeenth street, Covington, Ky., a locomotive engineer, formerly hostler at the Maysville C. & O. yards and well known here, was killed and Warren Price, 40 years old, 1415 Wheeler street, Covington, engineer, was injured early yesterday morning, when a wooden trestle at the Cincinnati approach to the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad bridge, Third and Smith streets, Cincinnati, collapsed, causing a heavy freight engine, coal tender and two freight cars to drop through the structure.

The locomotive and coal tender fell to a point several feet above the railroad yard bed, where the timbers locked and held it. The cars hanging from the trestle endangered the lives of freemen of Companies 52 and 14 and Hooks 7, who, under the direction of Fire Marshal William Hilsinger, worked their way beneath the wreckage and lifted Meyers from the cab, where a splintered timber, puncturing his abdomen, had pinned him against the mechanism of the engine. It required an hour's labor to extricate Meyers, who died 20 minutes after reaching the General Hospital.

Price sustained a long cut in his thigh.

George James, 22 years old, switchman, escaped injury by leaping to the ground. He sustained minor bruises.

The wreckage was cleared away by a wrecking crew yesterday. According to statements made to police the wooden structure is used exclusively for switching purposes, and is part of a spur leading off from the freight yards. Engines and cars use the trestle at all hours of the day and night and railroad officials said they believed the structure was a substantial one. From outward appearances, they said, the timbers were solid. However, it is believed the elements caused several of the timbers to decay.

MASONIC NOTICE.

Stated communication of Maysville Lodge, No. 52, F. & A. M. this evening at 7:30. Work in M. M. degree. The degree team from Carlisle will be here. All members are urged to be present. E. M. SMITH, W. M. C. P. RASP, Secretary.

MISS LIDA BROWNING DIES AFTER LINGERING ILLNESS

One of City's Most Beautiful Christian Characters Passes to Reward This Afternoon After Long Illness.

Miss Lida Browning died at the home of her brother, Mr. E. P. Browning in Riverview Terrace this afternoon about 2:30 o'clock after a lingering illness covering a period of several years. Quite a while ago Miss Browning fell at her brother's home and has been an invalid since that time. She had been gradually growing worse and on Saturday it was noticed that she was in a very critical condition.

Those who knew Miss Lida Browning intimately were indeed fortunate for a more noble woman never lived. She was a consistent Christian and her Christianity was of a practical sort. She was a life-long member of the First Baptist church of this city and until her accident a most faithful attendant. For many years she taught a class of young men in the First Baptist Sunday school and her influence over the young men of that congregation was marvelous and lasting.

Besides her brother, she is survived by several nieces and nephews in Maysville and Mason county and many relatives in Central Kentucky. Arrangements for the funeral have not as yet been made.

YOUNG PEOPLE MEET.

The Young Peoples Missionary Society of the First M. E. church, South, will meet Tuesday evening at 7:15 at the home of Miss Ann Shackelford on West Fourth street.

Messrs. William Wallace, John Kelly and John Connell, of Ashland, were guests of friends in this city Sunday, having stopped off on their way to Cincinnati. Mr. Wallace is an old Maysville boy, now connected with the Yellow Poplar Lumber Company, located at Ironton. This is his first visit to his old home in 31 years.

Miss Elizabeth Quaintance has returned to Greenville, South Carolina, after a month's vacation with her mother, Mrs. M. D. Quaintance.

Mr. Stanley Deligio and son, Harold, visited his younger children at the home of his mother, Mrs. George Deligio at Winchester, Ohio, Sunday.

Mrs. Hattie Crowell and daughter, Christine, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. George Deligio at Winchester, O.

The Mite Society of the M. E. Church South, will meet Wednesday afternoon at 2:30.

HUNDREDS HOMELESS WHEN FIRE SWEEP A WESTERN TOWN

More Than a Million Dollars in Damage Done by Fire Which Swept Willows, California, Sunday.

Willows, Calif., July 12.—Fire, late yesterday, destroyed virtually the entire business and hotel district of this city, leaving hundreds of persons homeless and causing a loss estimated at $1,000,000. Only three buildings in the district are still standing.

Relief trains were hurried here from Orlando and Tehama. The destruction of the hotels and restaurants made food scarce for the guests at hotels. Many of them went to other towns with autoists who came here to view the fire and the relief trains took others away.

Hoehelmer & Company owners of a department store were the heaviest losers. They estimated their loss at $500,000. The First National Bank building was a total loss, as were about 3 other business establishments.

MANY ATTEND LEWIS COUNTY DEDICATION EXERCISES.

The exercises in connection with the unveiling of the Soldiers' and Sailors' tablet at the Lewis county court house in Vanceburg Saturday afternoon were attended by a very large crowd not only from Lewis county but many from the adjoining counties being present. The principal addresses were made by Commonwealth Attorney John Coldiron and Hon. Edgar Hagar, of Ashland. The exercises were under the auspices of the Lewis County Fair Company and the music was made by the Trinity Boys' Band of this city. With only six months of training this band of 22 members did splendidly. Much credit for this splendid organization is due to the able management of Mr. A. G. Wilson, of Trinity, one of Lewis county's best citizens.

MAYOR RUSSELL WILL ATTEND PORTSMOUTH DAM OPENING.

Mayor Thomas M. Russell this afternoon accepted the invitation of the Portsmouth Chamber of Commerce to be present at the christening of the new Portsmouth Dam in the Ohio River on Thursday and to speak at the banquet to be given Thursday evening at the Washington hotel.

Officer Car Carpenter entered this morning upon his fifteen day vacation the most of which he will spend in the county.

TRADE WAR NO PICNIC.

Benefiting by the advantages of the merchant marine law enacted by the Republican Congress, the American government should enter the race for world trade with the determination to obtain its rightful share, said Senator Wesley L. Jones, chairman of the Committee on Commerce, recently. Revocation of treaties which now handicap the United States should be the first step, Senator Jones declared. "Other nations are beginning to awake to the fact that we are going to make a determined effort to engage in the world's carrying trade. England has directed her ambassador to look into it and no doubt he will use every diplomatic means to thwart our purposes."

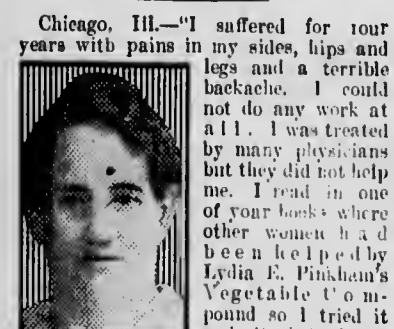

"European nations generally are freeing themselves from treaty provisions that will hinder them in the struggle for the world's trade. We have been prevented from doing what many thought should be done to aid our merchant marine by treaties entered into many years ago. This is a splendid time to unshackle ourselves and put ourselves in a position to make such treaties, to enter into such commercial relations, and to enact such laws as we think will promote our welfare in the world's readjustment."

"Other nations will look after their interests. We must look after ours. We are entering no brother-love, Sunday school picnic in seeking our part of the world's carrying trade. Fair means and foul will be used to defeat us. We must fight back and fight hard to maintain ourselves, and every honorable means must be used to advance."

"The man who does not want an American merchant marine built up by this country or is afraid to do what is needed to build up will find many faults in the Merchant Marine Act just passed. The man who earnestly desires an American merchant marine will look for and find good things in the act and will construe it and apply its terms so as to do what it is designed to do. Every line of the act will be found to be framed to aid our merchant marine. We have not sought to bring comfort to our foreign competitors. On the contrary, we need to aid our people to withstand the competition they must meet."

PUBLISH MY LETTER

Says Mrs. Ovestein, So Other Suffering Women May Learn How to Get Well.

Chicago, Ill.—"I suffered for four years with pains in my sides, hips and legs and a terrible backache. I could not do any work at all. I was treated by many physicians but they did not help me. I read in one of your books where other women had been helped by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound so I tried it and it helped me and I can do everything in the house. I have told my friends about your wonderful Vegetable Compound and you have my permission to publish my letter so other women who suffer may learn how to get well."—Mrs. IDA OVESTIN, 902 S. This good old-fashioned remedy is made from native roots and herbs and contains no narcotics or harmful drugs. If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

A surface current flows continuously from the Black Sea into the Mediterranean, and an under-current from the Mediterranean into the Black Sea. The latter current is salt, and being heavier than the fresh water above, it remains stagnant at the bottom. Being saturated with sulphuretted hydrogen, this water will not maintain life, and so the Black Sea contains no living inhabitants below the depths of about one hundred fathoms.

Thomas Hardy, the eminent English novelist, has a habit of invariably wearing two waistcoats. Indeed, in a severe winter, he has been known to don as many as four, but even on the hottest summer day he sticks to his two, the outside one being generally of the old-fashioned knitted sort.

IDLE THOUGHTS ON IRELAND.

By JEROME K. JEROME.

The plan for the solution of the Irish problem most favored by the English upper classes till within a short time ago was the towing of Ireland into the middle of the Atlantic Ocean and there sinking her. In my younger days I was under the impression that the suggestion was intended as a joke, amusing at first, but growing tiresome by earnest and unwearied repetition as the years rolled on. Closer acquaintance with the political centrality of the English upper classes leaves me in doubt as to whether the idea may not have occurred to them as a serious alternative to the granting of Home Rule. One reflects that the English upper classes are not guilty of much wit and humor, and drastic measure for the removal of the Irish difficulty have always appeared to their imagination. Possibly the spread of education may account for this particular scheme having fallen into disrepute. It is put forward nowadays by only very old gentlemen who generally clinch the argument by fiercely waving their umbrellas. The more intelligent of the Unionist Party appear to have convinced themselves of its impracticability. Ten later and much more sensible plan now advocated is that all Irish irreconcilables, together with their wives and families (in politics, an "irreconcilable" person is a man who will not reconcile himself to an idea of what is good for him,) should be "removed" from Ireland and their places be supplied by English settlers. Oliver Cromwell tried this method under conditions much more favorable to success; though I doubt if today we are thanking him for his contribution to the Irish problem. But the idea is gaining favor with the English Military Party and cannot be dismissed as altogether unimportant. Its possibilities are being discussed in our clubs and drawing rooms, and already there is an echo in the Press revealing the underground currents of savagery that are everywhere threatening European civilization. The Press can be eloquent enough preaching the sacredness of constitutional methods to Labour. But where the interest of the classes are concerned it never hesitates to advocate recourse to Direct Action. The late Lord Salisbury's plan for twenty years of resolute government works all right provided the nation to be governed were not equally resolute never to submit. For three hundred years all the resources of the British Empire have been strained to the subjugation of Ireland. And today this little nation of four million souls is in more defiant mood than ever, declaring that there is only one thing that will content her—the independence of Ireland.

Why should it frighten us? Why is England the only country that dare not live side by side with a free people? If the French were a little people, I suppose we should be arguing the same way, declaring that we much conquer France and hold her down, because she happens to be only twenty miles from Dover. We should recall her past history, all her acts of aggression against us, all her threats, her unfriendly allusions to "perfidious Albion," the centuries of misunderstanding and mutual dislike. Can we allow a country as near to us as France to assert her independence? So it would be urged. What a jumping-off ground for our enemies! Why, her guns from Calais could rake our coasts. Our merchantmen could no longer ride the English Channel in security. Sorry. Any little thing we can do to make the French people happy and contented we will out of our generosity consider. Frenchmen shall be represented even to the excess of their due in our Parliament at Westminster. We will even allow them to organize societies for the preservation of the French language. The English Castle in Paris shall rule them justly, as is our good English way. French peasants shall be paid high wages for serving in the (English) Royal French Constabulary and shall help England to maintain order over Frenchmen. But that France should be allowed her own Government, her own Parliament, to rule herself! The thing is unthinkable. Home Rule, as regards tramways and electric lighting, perhaps we will permit her. She shall have her National Country Council in Paris. Any little thing like that, with pleasure. So long as France remains within the British Empire, so long as she submits to a British Army of Occupation and the control of an English viceroy. France is as near to us as is Ireland. France really could be a danger to us. One cannot forget that there have been times when she has been. Every argument used to justify British rule in Ireland could be used with tenfold force to justify our conquering and holding France. Except this one fact: That we can't do it. France is not a little nation, helpless to resist us.

If America argued as we do, she would conquer and annex Canada, as she easily could do. America dare not allow a British possession from which an enemy's troops could be poured across her border, in whose ports an enemy's navy could shelter in safety, to exist beside her. What should we say, if Spain, using our arguments, were to conquer and annex our ancient ally, Portugal? Suppose Soviet Russia declared that she would not sleep in her bed while there existed on her borders an independent Finland and Poland, aggressive, quarrelsome, always waiting the opportunity to attack her. Can one not imagine the howl of virtuous indignation that would go up from our Imperial Press against Russia, the bully of the smaller nations merely because they happen to be her neighbours? Why do we foam at the mouth because of the mere suggestion that a little free and independent nation should rise out of the Atlantic Ocean some twenty to fifty miles from our shores? Sooner or later it will have to come to that. The sooner the British public faces the fact and gains control over its nerves, the better for Great Britain. Other nations than the Irish, left to themselves, have overcome difficulties greater than the Ulster problem. Ulster could take care of herself as well within the Irish Parliament as outside of it. In every country outside Ireland the Irish have proved themselves practical politicians, capable of government. It is an agricultural country. And agricultural countries are conservative by instinct. There is no sense in half-measures. They invariably produce the maximum of evil to the minimum of good. Let Ireland go, with God's blessing and a shake of the hand. And the hate and evil of a thousand years will be drowned. And out of the sea will arise a friendly nation that we can live with side by side.

A rainy Sunday morning preceded by many late nights at the chautauqua gave many an excuse to sleep a little late, hence a big slump in the attendance. So far the summer attendance has kept up very good. The next three or four Sundays will be the testing time. So let all who are not going away on vacations be faithful in attendance at Sunday school and church. Do it right away! Get back in form next Sunday.

NOTICE

We may be considered a small boat, as has been said. But we can get out into big water and we are able and capable of doing any size job; and because we are always found on the bottom is no reason why we should be considered a small boat.

There is an almost pathetic moral in this graphic representation of the highest delusion the contractor has had to ally, namely—

What low bidding does anybody any good.

In fact, it is a question whether the speculative end of the contractor's business hasn't cost the man who accepts the bid more than he ever saved by it.

You can pay less—yes; but you will get less.
The contractor has three things to sell: skill, superintendence and materials, each with a market value that competition has pretty well standardized.

If then he is offered less than his standard of quality will meet, it is not his purse that suffers, but your job. You may not know till later that all electric wire isn't just wire, and it is the same with all electrical devices.

When you pay what the job is worth you get reliable materials, you place yourself in the preferred customer class, with first claim on your contractors services. You fix it so he can approach the work with true artisan's enthusiasm, with ready suggestion and unselfish advice.

This may seem to run counter to the old axiom for buyers—"buy the most for the least." But does it?

It is being proved pretty fast that a little extra money allowed on a contract bid buys good-will, which in turn works for you to drive a longer bargain. For you must live with or work with an electrical installation long after the estimate sheet is grown at the edges.

If you pick the right contractor, fair price will never cost you any money, but you will not always find the right contractor down at the bottom with the low bid.

Our object is to live and let live; and if we don't live while we live when we are to live. And if you will wire for us; we will wire for you.

MORROW ENDORSES KENTUCKY STATE MEMORIAL PLAN

Local Drives Will Be Conducted Over the State to Raise $150,000 Still Needed in Work.

A call to the people of Kentucky not to forget the 2,756 sons of the state who gave their all in the late war, and the thousands more who offered all, was sent out Saturday by Governor Edwin P. Morrow in behalf of the Kentucky Memorial Building campaign.

Workers from campaign headquarters at Lexington will go out during the next two months to counties throughout the state to conduct local drives to raise the $150,000 remaining of the $300,000 needed for the building.

That this is not a local memorial for Lexington, but in commemoration of all Kentucky's war heroes and for the special benefit of students at the University of Kentucky from all sections of the state, was emphasized in a statement made today by the campaign chairman.

The 15,899 former students of the University have included men and women from every county of the state the smallest group being four from Edmonson county, and the largest 3,468 from Fayette.

Governor Morrow's endorsement of the campaign for the memorial building follows:

"I most heartily and earnestly endorse the idea of erecting on the campus of the State University of Kentucky a Memorial Building to commemorate the sons of Kentucky who gave all dared all and offered all for their country in the great drama and tragedy of the late war. A great chapel on the beautiful campus of State University, dedicated to the memory of the heroes of our state, will be a daily inspiration to the student body of the University. It will be a perpetual fountain from which the Sons of Liberty may drink deep of freedom. It will add another source of state and National inspiration and will help to preserve the spirit of patriotism and loyalty which has made Kentucky famous. Living, those who died in a foreign land forgot neither their flag, their country or ourselves. The living for whom they gave all should not forget them now.
"I can not too earnestly endorse this splendid movement, and I hope for it every success."

LAST CHAUTAUQUA DANCE HELD TONIGHT.

The chautauqua will be brought to a grand close this evening with a great dance at the Beechwood pavilion. It is expected that many out-of-town people will be here for the biggest dance of the chautauqua week. Fine music has been procured and a great time is promised to all.

NOTICE ODD FELLOWS.

Regular semi-monthly meeting of Pisgah Encampment No. 9, I. O. O. F., will be held this evening at 7:30 o'clock at DeKath Lodge building in Second street. Officers will be installed and a full attendance is desired.

The large chime clock which hung in front of the Bank of Maysville building is today being moved to the bank's new building on the south side of Second street.

Miss Mary Mitchell has returned to her home in Covington after a most delightful visit with Miss Phoebe Huron, of West Third street.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Cassidy and Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Wilson, of Lexington, were the week-end guests of Mrs. Mary Quaintance and family.
